

Declaration of Conformity

Subsea Cable

DLR-2P20-2C50

We, Seascope Subsea BV, duly and legally represented by the undersigned, hereby declare that the following products are compliant and have been tested by us against the listed standards and found in conformity with the directives of the European Union. Based on the above, Seascope Subsea BV, is entitled to mark the product "Subsea cable, model: DLR-2P20-2C50" with the CE marking demonstrating the conformity with the directives as shown below:

|                       |                                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product:              | Subsea Cable                                                                                                                    |
| Model:                | DLR-2P20-2C50                                                                                                                   |
| Manufacturer:         | Seascope Subsea BVDe Hoogjens 224254 XW SleenwijkThe NetherlandsT. +31-183-307900E. info@SeascopeSubsea.com |
| Electronic Directive: | 2014/35/EU                                                                                                               |
| WEEE Directive:       | 2012/19/EU                                                                                                               |
| REACH Directive       | 2016/1907/EU                                                                                                             |
| RoHS Directives:      | 2011/65/EU2015/863/EU                                                                                         |

The tests were carried out on the submitted type-samples of a product in conformity with the specification of the respective standards. The technical construction dossier is available upon request at Seascope Subsea BV, the Netherlands.

O. Sjouke
Seascope Subsea BV
03/07/2025

